Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, keeping in view the rapid convergence of telecom, computers, television and electronics, etc.

(c) and (d) C&AG of India in his report for the year 1997-98 (No. 4 of 1999) covering "other autonomous bodies" presented to Parliament on 29th October, 1999 has commented adversely on the expenditure incurred on certain facilities to Chairperson, Members and Staff and Officers of TRAI. On the orders of the appropriate authority, the Department had issued orders regularising the expenditure incurred by Chairperson and Members from the date of assumption of their office till 14.3.99.

Based on the recommendations of the Group on Telecom and IT Convergence in the matter regarding strengthening of TRAI through suitable legislative amendment, the TRAI (Amendment) Ordinance 2000 was promulgated on 24th January 2000 to bring about certain structural changes in the principal TRAI Act. After the amendment to section 10 of the principal Act through the Ordinance, the terms and conditions of service of the staff, officers and other employees of TRAI shall now be prescribed by the Central Government.
